

Name: _____

Date: _____

Multiplication And Division Word Problems

Solve for x. Show your work.

1. If 63 students sit in 7 equal rows, how many students per row?
2. Each shelf has 5 books. If there are 3 shelves, how many books total?
3. If 60 students sit in 6 equal rows, how many students per row?
4. A garden has 9 rows with 6 plants in each row. How many plants?
5. There are 3 teams with 8 players on each team. How many players total?
6. A teacher has 40 pencils to divide equally into 8 groups. How many per group?
7. Each shelf has 10 books. If there are 3 shelves, how many books total?
8. If 63 students sit in 9 equal rows, how many students per row?

Multiplication And Division Word Problems – Answer Key

1. If 63 students sit in 7 equal rows, how many students per row?

9

2. Each shelf has 5 books. If there are 3 shelves, how many books total?

15

3. If 60 students sit in 6 equal rows, how many students per row?

10

4. A garden has 9 rows with 6 plants in each row. How many plants?

5. There are 3 teams with 8 players on each team. How many players total?

6. A teacher has 40 pencils to divide equally into 8 groups. How many per group?

7. Each shelf has 10 books. If there are 3 shelves, how many books total?

30

8. If 63 students sit in 9 equal rows, how many students per row?

7